Department of Legal Metrology

Notification

1/174/2020-CLM

Further to the Ease of Doing Business reforms undertaken by the Department of Legal Metrology, Government of Goa is hereby making the following changes in the online system effectively.

Compliance inspection under the Legal Metrology Act, 2009 and Rules made thereunder shall be carried out through the Centralized Inspection System of the Goa single window system. The online system has following features:

1. Establishments and/or businesses that are eligible for compliance inspection are randomly selected for inspection by computerized system.

2. Inspectors are allotted to the establishment and/or businesses based on the jurisdiction and the same Inspector shall not inspect a particular establishment and/or business twice consecutively within the year.

3. Inspection report shall be uploaded to the online system within 48 hours and will be available for view by the business that was inspected.

4. Inspection shall be limited to the points that are outlined in the checklist. The format of the inspection checklist along with the procedure may be accessed through the Department's website <https://clm.goa.gov.in>.

Due to the uniform nature and characteristics of weights and measures that are used across small, medium or large businesses, no distinction may be made based on risk. All businesses are, therefore, assigned same risk classification and same compliance inspection shall be applicable to all.

Businesses that have satisfactory compliance inspection shall be made eligible for auto-renewal of their registration under the Legal Metrology Act, 2009 against the payment of requisite fees. The application is available on the state single window system www.goaonline.gov.in.

P. S. Shirodkar, Controller, Legal Metrology.
